Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 25 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry, sunny and warm with light winds.

Today:
Any early mist or fog patches soon burning away on a fine, dry, sunny, warm day, with temperatures highest towards Belfast. Light and variable winds. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry with early evening sunshine then clear spells, which combines with the light and variable winds to allow mist and fog patches to develop late evening and overnight. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Thursday:
Rather cloudy and misty start with fog patches. This will slowly lift during the morning and early afternoon, leading to a bright end to the day. Winds light and variable. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Settled fine, dry weather dominating the vast majority with plenty of sunshine and light winds. Temperatures though not up to the levels of Wednesday still significantly above the seasonal averages.
